

Consent is...

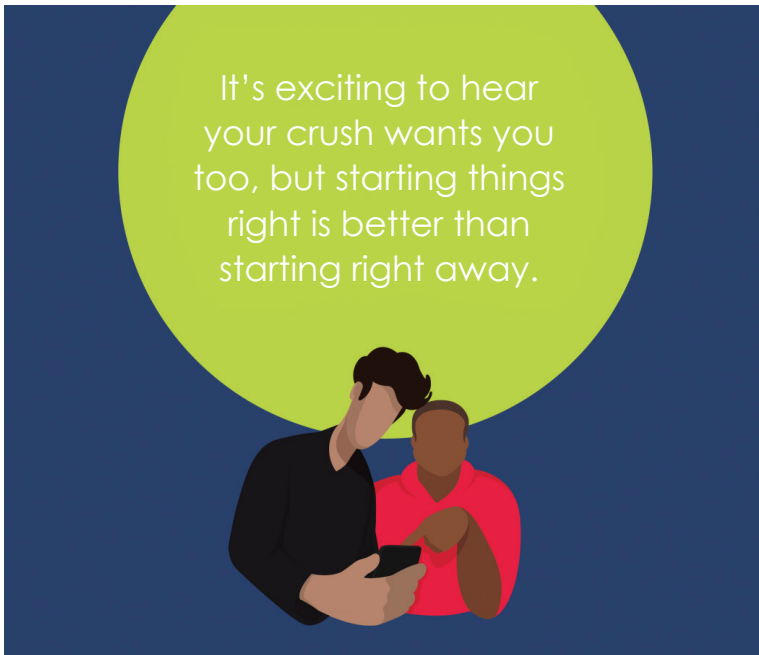

You NEVER
talk to me.

Hey,
wanna go
upstairs?

Yeah...
but not tonight.
Can I give you
my number?

It's exciting to hear
your crush wants you
too, but starting things right is better than starting right away.

If they can't focus their eyes, they're slurring, stumbling, confused, falling asleep, or just seem off, it's not the time to take it to the next level. They may or may not remember what a stand-up person you were, but you will.
