

The group will run in-person once a week for 10 weeks.

Thursday evenings
Aug. 22 to Oct. 24, 2024
6 to 8:30 p.m.

Supports may be available to participants who require childcare and/or transit/parking costs.

To schedule an intake appointment, contact:

info@sace.ca

780.423.4102

Please note: the intake process helps facilitators determine if the healing circle is the right fit for participants and does not guarantee a spot with the group.

Wîwîp'son Healing from Sexual Trauma Circle for Indigenous Women is a closed, no-fee therapeutic group that blends Indigenous ceremony and teachings with psychoeducation about sexual trauma. It is intended for status and non-status First Nations, Métis, and Inuit women ages 18+ (Two-Spirit and trans-inclusive).

Facilitators: Kohkum Ruth Cardinal de Ubiera, Lori Inkster, Dakota Joslin, and Sarah Jane Marshall

Location: SACE office, Princeton Place, 300 - 10339 124 Street

Permission was granted by Dr. Darlene Auger to use the name "Wîwîp'son" for this program. For information about Swing Therapy, please go to wîwîpson.com.

sace
SUPPORT &
INFO LINE

780·
423·
4121